New York Stock Market

New York, October 20.—Erratic movements again characterized the stock market to-day, although it ex-hibited a consistently firm undertone. Prices seemed to fluctuate in response Prices seemed to fluctuate in response to no well defined changes in opinion, which remains confused and uncertain. Changes in consequence were often perplexing, and could be attributed only to the varying fortunes of large speculative interests, whose operations have been expanded considerably in the last few days. The market closed with substantial gains, ranging from 1 to 2 points among the active stocks, but the advance seemed to represent more the temporary advantage of one faction than a genuine enhancement of market values.

Although activity increased on both sides of the market, the bears were of market values.

Although activity increased on both sides of the market, the bears were not able to bring about such perieds of weakness as they produced yesterday. According to the gossip of the street, a large pool was at work in United States Steel. Whether or not there is any ground for such a report, avidences of manipulation in various parts of the list were plain. Bears attacked the market energetically in the early trading, but made little headway. Selling at the outset was unusually heavy. More than 50,000 shares of United States Steel were thrown on the market within the first few minutes, but although the list weekened somewhat, it soon recovered. After a series of unimportant fluctuations the market took on renewed activity before the close, and in the last half-hour prices were carried up rapidly.

The metal stocks were most conspic-

THRIFT

A railroad company once issued a circular to its employes urging them to exercise greater care in the use of supplies. Among other things, this circular said: "A spike lost or thrown away compels the road to haul a ton of freight two

This is the secret of Thrift-the ability to translate expenditures into terms of work. When we realize that every dollar we spend in a contract to work a certain length of time FOR SOME ONE ELSE, we shall spend more wisely.

Thrift is commonly regarded as slavery to the material. It is just the contrary. It is the only door to liberty. It buys freedom and leisure. It opens life to travel, study, ability to give-to everything that is highest and best.

This bank has a Savings Department for the use of the Thrifty. Safety is assured.
